Samples and Artwork Proofs:

The AFLNT Commercial Operations Department must sign-off on all final artwork and design samples prior to production for all new items that include any of the logos as specified above. Final artwork must include size specifications of all logos/ emblems on the garment (as per the below guidelines).

If the AFLNT or any program or affiliated logo is reproduced incorrectly without proper approval and/or at a lower standard than outlined in the AFLNT Guidelines the supplier will reproduce the items in question at their cost.

AFLNT reserves the right to make any final decisions based on the information available at the time.

1. Approval Process

For apparel orders, please forward all requests in the first instance to the general enquiries email NTCommercial@afl.com.au. For apparel approvals (e.g. NTFL club guernseys) – this is a process that is managed jointly with Football Operations. Turnaround time is 1-2 working days.

2. Your Competition Manager (for Clash approval)

AFLNT will seek internal approval from Football Operations in all competitions based on current by-laws and regulations (refer below)
